TEDDY STARTLES THE NATIVES

MAKES TRIP IN AEROPLANE AT ST. LOUIS—ENJOYS THE SPORT.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 11.—Theodore Roosevelt made a biplane flight today and said it was the finest experience he ever had. He traveled twice around the aviation field at Kinloch, sixteen miles west of St.
Louis, in 3 minutes and 20 seconds.
He waved his hand at the crowd of thousands in the field below, most of whom were too dumfounded to move.

When the machine alighted easily a few feet from the starting place a mighty shout of applause and relief went up.

Aviator Was the Nervous Man.

Arch Hoxey, a Wright aviator, with whom Col. Roosevelt made his flight, said that his passenger made a good fellow voyager for such a trip, except that instead of being afraid, he was having such a good time that Hoxey was afraid he would fall out or interfere with the engine, which was roaring at his side.

The Colonel waved his hands at the crowd below so vigorously that Hoxey called out to him:

"Keep your hands on the rail, Colonel."

Col. Roosevelt, who had forgotten to hold himself in, waved his hands once more and then obeyed orders.

Acceptance of Invitation a Surprise.

The Colonel's flight was a surprise to everybody. Although he had been invited to go, no one had the least idea that he would do so, and he did not decide to go until the moment before he stepped into the machine.

The trip to the aviation field to watch the flights there was on the afternoon's program for the colonel's day in St. Louis. He went to Kinloch in an automobile at the head of a procession of motor cars which was half a mile long.

The cars were filled by members of the republican state and city committee's business men. The ride was a fast and dusty one, and much of the way the cars were enveloped in such clouds of dust, that it was impossible to see more than a few feet ahead. Col. Roosevelt's face was covered with a thick coating of Missouri dirt when he arrived at the field.

Noisy Welcome When He Arrives.

Col. Roosevelt's car was driven directly on the aviation field, instead of to the parking place for automobiles. Around the rim of the field were hundreds of cars which tooted their horns in noisy chorus as the colonel appeared.

The spectators were massed in throngs on every hand, and a company of militiamen kept them back.

Hoxey's machine, a great biplane, was standing directly in front of the grand stand. Col. Roosevelt stepped from his automobile with Gov. Hadley at his side and walked over to it. He inspected the broad planes and the huge engine, and shook hands with the aviator.

Hokey Extends Invitation to Fly.

"I'd like to have you for a passenger," Hoxey said. The colonel looked at him without a word. Then he began to take off his coat. It was the first intimation that any one had that he would make the trip.

Gov. Hadley stepped up quickly with a serious look on his face and said:

"Are you really going up, Colonel?"

"Of course, I am," the colonel said and without another word took his seat at Hoxey's direction, beside the engine.

Gov. Hadley said that it would do no good to protest and stepped back.
He admitted afterward that he was nervous.

"This is my district and it extends up into the air. I feel a sense of responsibility while the Colonel is in my territory," he said.

Congressman Carter Will Speak.

Hon. C. D. Carter, congressman from the fourth district, will address the citizens of Pontotoc county on the issues of the day on the dates at the places named:

Stonewall, Friday, Oct. 21, 8 p. m.

Ada, Saturday, Oct. 22, 2 p. m.

Roff, Saturday, Oct. 22, 8 p. m.

"I have no defense to make of the Payne law because it needs none," says Mr. Cannon. We move to amend by substituting "admits of" for needs.

INDIAN CASES

AGAIN POSTPONED

Muskogee, Okla., Oct. 10.—When the Brown Gritts case is called for argument in the supreme court of the United States Tuesday, Attorney General Wickersham for the government will move that the hearing be postponed for thirty days. The postponement is upon request of Senator Owen, of Muskogee, who is of counsel for the plaintiffs, and who found it inconvenient for him to be in Washington at this time.

The Brown-Gritts case is one of the most important Indian cases now pending in the courts. The vital point at issue is whether or not the government, after it has given an Indian an allotment under treaty stipulations, can place additional restrictions upon such allotment without the consent of the Indian. It involves the validity of the McCumber amendment which placed the lands of the full-blood Indians of the Five Civilized Tribes under restrictions prohibiting the sale of the land for a period of twenty-five years from the date of the patent. The McCumber amendment was passed after the Indians had selected their allotments.

Another very important feature of this case is that its decision will have a very important bearing upon the thirty thousand land title suits that have been instituted in eastern Oklahoma by the government. If the Brown-Gritts case is decided favorably for the plaintiffs, it will practically wipe out all of the land title cases. If the decision is against them then the cases will have to be tried on their merits.

SALE OF THE DAN

HAYS ADDITION

We desire to call special attention to the big ad of the Dan Hays addition lot sale in this issue. The sale will take place Friday and Saturday, October 21-2. All Ada people know how very desirable this property is. In fact, it is about all that remains close in. Richard Flood, who now owns that property, is on the ground "pushing matters night and day. He is a man who has made a success of this kind of work and knowing the possibilities of Ada, he is most enthusiastic over these lots.
He is a man who likewise knows the value of a newspaper in getting his property before the people. It will pay you to keep an eye on him and his progressive methods of handling real estate. Other ads will follow between now and the sale.
Watch for them.

MINNESOTA JUDGE

TO PASS ON CLAUSE

Guthrie, Okla., Oct. 11.—United States Circuit Judge Walter A. Sanborn of St. Paul has been requested by United States Judge Cotteral of Oklahoma to preside in Guthrie during the hearings on the suit attacking the constitutionality of the recently adopted grandfather clause. It is probable that under the law three judges will be required to preside.

Judge Cotteral, in passing upon a case before involving the principle of the grandfather clause, expressed his opinion of the law, declaring that those who would disfranchise the negro did not have the merits of goods citizens. Hence his request that another judge preside.

INDIANS APPEAL FOR WHITE MAN'S CHANGE

Muskogee, Ok., Oct. 11.—By passing resolutions, the substance of which declared in favor of the government "giving the Indian a white man's chance," the International Indian congress adjourned this afternoon. The resolutions will be carried by a committee to Washington this winter and congress asked to take action.

A babel of tongues and a riot of color added picturesqueness to the session today when 500 Indians met in pow-wow. The tribes represented were the Peorias, Delawares, Choctaws, Creeks, Cherokees, Blackfeet, Pueblos, Nobles, Arapahoes, Chey-quapaws, Sioux, Crows and others.

Kaws, Kiawas, Comanches, Miamis,
in a delegation to the Eastern Okla-Quawbaws, Sioux, Crows and others, home State Fair.

Speeches were made by Rev. Sherman Collidge, Arapaho and Cheesie McIntosh, a Creek, and interpreted to the various tribes.

Rev. Mr. Collidge, who is a highly educated Arapaho, spoke in part:
"Give the Indian the white man's chance is all we ask and is all we need and the rest of the Indian race can become what the Five Civilized Tribes are, and can accomplish what the Five Tribes have accomplished. The Indian nature is pathetic and they have been tried as scholars and soldiers and have not been found wanting."

A resolution committee met this afternoon and spent hours drafting a suitable resolution. Each section has to be interpreted to each of the representatives of the twenty tribes.
This evening the Indians were taken Kaws, Kiawas, Comanches, Miamis,
in a delegation to the Eastern Okla-
Quawbaws, Sioux, Crows and others, home State Fair.

GRAND LEADER CLOSED AGAIN TEMPORARILY

The insurance adjusters having in hand the settlement of losses incurred in the recent fire at the Grand Leader store, reached an agreement with Messrs. Kaiz & Rosenfield, the proprietors, Saturday as to the value of goods now in the store, but failed to reach an agreement as to the allowances to be made and the amount due on account of the fire. The store was opened for business Saturday night and until last night did a rushing business.

However, when J. F. McKeel, their attorney, returned from Dallas last night he advised that the store be closed until everything was settled, thereby taking no chance of litigation later. Mr. McKeel states that he thinks everything will be settled within a week and the store again open for business.

OKLAHOMA W. C. T. U. CONVENES AT ARDMORE

Ninety Local Unions Have Reported at Meeting.

Ardmore, Ok., Oct. 11.—The state W. C. T. U. convention opened here this morning with the largest number of delegates that has ever attended the convention since statehood. Ninety local unions have reported, showing a membership of 2,245 and collections for the year aggregating $4,900. Muskogee contributed more money than any other city in the state. Only one-half of the unions reported on the first day.

State President Mrs. Cora B. Hammett of Oklahoma City delivered her annual address this morning. Each member was given a copy in pamphlet form and the convention voted to use the address for campaign purposes for the election to be held in November.

State Organizer Mrs. Hillerman and Mrs. Sheplar gave very encouraging reports, which show large percentage gain in Women's Christian Temperance Union membership during the past year.

Hon. George Bough of Guthrie, candidate for Governor on the prohibition ticket, is attending the convention. In a five minutes' talk today he did not refer to the proposed local option amendment to the constitution nor to his candidacy for governor. His talk was devoted to his experience in promoting the organization. Every other speaker who occupied the floor referred to the proposed amendment and predicted that the state would go overwhelmingly dry in November.

The program tonight consisted of welcome addresses by people of Ardmore.

They also visited the principal cities of interest in Europe.

A Wonderful Improver.

F. H. Elliott, the secretary of the American Automobile association, laughed at a dinner in New York, over some of the absurd claims made against automobilists.

"If an automobile runs over a pig," he said, "it is sure to be a blooded Berkshire. Every chicken slaughtered is a pedigreed bird worth $40 or $50. A yellow barnyard cur is a wire-haired fox terrier. A calf is always of Alderney or Guernsey blood."

Mr. Elliott smiled. "To tell the truth," he said, "nothing seems to improve livestock like crossing it with an automobile."

Charged With Selling Whiskey.

Sam Minnix of Dolberg was arrested yesterday by deputy O. C. Collins of Roff, on a charge of selling whiskey to a minor. He was released on a $500 bond.

Doc Sweatt of Steedman, himself a minor, was arrested and jailed yesterday on a charge of selling whiskey to a minor. Doc Sweatt is not out of the teens. His father was already in jail on a like charge.

Paying Off Many Mortgages.

C. C. Hargis, our obliging register of deeds, informs us that since the first of January 4,287 chattel mortgages have been filed in his office. These are now being released at the rate of seventy-five per day. The banks all report that many settlements are being made every day, and that the country will be nearer out of debt than for years past. Many farmers will be left with comfortable balances after paying all their debts.

A Correction.

In giving the account of Wyatt Poole's injury yesterday the word "knee" appeared where it should have been "ankle" making the sentence read "had the flesh stripped from the bone of the right leg some three or four inches above the ankle clear to the knee" when it should have read "clear to the ankle."

A Lady of Pizarro Tells Story of
Awful Suffering That Cardui
Finally Relieved.

Pizarro, Va.—"I suffered for several years," writes Mrs. Dorna A. Smith, "with that awful backache and the bearing down sensations, so fully described in your book."

"I tried doctors and other medicines and found little relief, until I was induced to try Wine of Cardui, when I found instant relief and today I can heartily recommend Cardui to all suffering women and think there is no other as good."

In some instances, Cardui gives instant relief; in others, it may take a little time. But in all cases of female trouble Cardui can be depended on to be of benefit, as it is a specific remedy for women and acts in a curative way on the womanly organs.

As a general tonic for women, to build up your strength, improve your appetite, bring back rosy cheeks and make you look and feel young and happy, nothing you can find will do so much for you as Cardui.

RECORD OF CONGRESSMAN CHARLES D. CARTER

The Ada News has always been a consistent friend of Charley Carter, congressman from this district, and it has afforded us no little satisfaction to observe the good record he has been making. That others likewise appreciate his excellent work is shown from the following editorial which appeared in the Durant Daily Democrat under date of October 7:

Some of the republican papers in congressional district have been asking what our democratic congressman has done during his one and a half terms of service. This is a fair question and we hereinbelow set forth a few of the things accomplished for the Fourth district during Charley Carter's incumbency, and from their number and importance it would seem that Charley Carter has been one of the busiest of the bunch at Washington, to-wit:

"Resolution authorizing the Gore investigation; authorization of immediate appeal of Indian land suits to the supreme court of the United States; platting and sale of town lots on the segregated mineral land, a proposition which gave to many the privilege of getting title to a home or business house which they had already built; giving authority to secretary of the interior to accept payment on town lots which had already been sold, to which title was not available on account of the Act of April 26, 1906; the sale of the public domain for school and other public purposes; replatting and sale of town lots at Hartshorne, Oklahoma; limitation of the contest period, preventing the bringing of contests on Indian filings after sixty days; removal of restrictions on nine million acres of Indian lands; payment of $200,000 Choctaw and Chickasaw warrants which had hung fire for four years, and exempting Indian lands from which restrictions were removed from obligations for debts contracted prior thereto.

Appropriations for internal improvements have come to this district during Mr. Carter's term amounting to more than $1,000,000, consisting of the furnishing of land records to the counties which composed old Indian Territory; maintenance of public schools, survey and improvements of rivers, building of court houses and post offices, and donations of federal jails to counties."

These and many other important items of good legislation have been accomplished for this district since Charley Carter was sent to congress, in all of which he took an active and leading part, and was the proponent and chief defender of many of them.

As to the position he has taken on national issues suffice it to say that an investigation of the congressional record will show that Mr. Carter's vote on every measure has been in favor of the people as against the special interest, a record exactly the reverse of the three stand-pat republican congressmen from this district.

Moreover, Charley Carter is a good loyal citizen of the Fourth district. It is true he is not so wealthy as the republican candidate, but stick a pin here, he has faith in his district and stands loyally by his home folks; for his little mite—ever cent that he has ever accumulated—has been invested in property in the Fourth Congressional district.

Perhaps the greatest thing that can be said for Charley Carter is the fact that he has been of sufficient importance to draw the fire of the wily and arrogant Joe Cannon, speaker of the house, a distinction not attained by many new members, and which establishes him unequivocally on the side of the people as opposed to the special interests of organized greed represented by Uncle Joe.

Now, let us see what the republican candidate has ever done for the people of this district that he has the right to expect their suffrage. He was federal clerk for more than ten years at a salary ranging from $10,000 to $60,000 per annum, during which time he drew more than $200,000 from the same "strong box" from which congressman Carter's salary comes, and the only thing the people of this district ever derived therefrom is the knowledge of his enormous investments in Maryland and Oklahoma City, both places out of the district.

The republican candidate spent a greater part of last winter and spring in Washington. When he came home republican papers heralded his return with the statement that he had accomplished more during his stay than any other man had done in years.

Now, we call on you, republican editors, to name one single thing he accomplished in Washington last winter. Can you make good?

Who Will Control Next Congress?

The New York Herald has made a close study of the present situation of the country and concludes that the democrats are sure of electing 141 members of the next house, the republicans 132 and 118 districts doubtful. By states these are as follows:

Alabama, 1; California, 2; Colorado, the state at large and two districts; Connecticut, 1; Delaware, 1; Georgia, 1; Illinois, 9; Indiana, 10; Iowa, 6; Kansas, 2; Kentucky, 5; Maryland, 6; Michigan, 3; Minnesota, 4; Missouri, 4; Nebraska, 2; Nevada, 1; New Hampshire, 1; New Jersey, 3; New York, 13; North Carolina, 5; Ohio, 9; Oklahoma, 1; Pennsylvania, 14; Rhode Island, 2; Tennessee, 1; Virginia, 1; West Virginia, 4; Wisconsin, 3.

It is worthy of note that many states that have for years been solidly republican have a number of districts placed in the doubtful column.

ROOSEVELT CAN'T VISIT OKLAHOMA NOW

Guthrie, Ok., Oct. 11.—Col. Roosevelt will not be able to visit Oklahoma during his present Western trip, is the information conveyed by letters from the ex-President to James A. Harris, chairman of the state republican committee, and to Congressman Bird McGuire. The Colonel wrote that his available dates were filled and that the New York committee believed that he should give the remainder of his time to the campaign in that state.

Col. Roosevelt made it plain in his letter to Chairman Harris, however, that he would like very much to visit Oklahoma as the chairman and requested, and that he thought it possible he could come later. It is believed now that he can be secured for a number of speeches during that the country will be nearer out again.

You appreciate how uncomfortable the kitchen is these warm days? It will be worse as you advance further in the summer. Why not use electricity and be cool? You can cook, bake, operate your sewing machine, wash and iron. In fact, there is nothing which cannot be accomplished with electricity that is accomplished by either gas or an ordinary range. It is odorless, no heat, no smoke simply press the button and we do the rest.

THE OKLAHOMA COAL SITUATION

A question of interest to Oklahoma people is what coal is going to cost this winter. We have noticed several comments along this line and that coal will likely be higher this winter. To get at the facts of the case the News man interviewed B. H. Frick, manager of the Ada Ice and Fuel Co. this morning. Mr. Frick stated that there is no truth in the statement sent out by the coal producers that any advance will be by the retail dealers. Of course the situation is in the hands of the big companies and they have raised the price from fifty cents to $2.00 per ton. Besides this the freight rates will be from twenty-five to thirty-five cents higher than last year on account of the federal injunction holding up the commission's rate. Furthermore, the coal companies are sore because they did not get the support they expected from the state during the strike and now feel inclined to retaliate by making up for the losses incurred during the strike by exacting a higher price for their product.

However, Ada will be more fortunate than most towns. Mr. Frick already had a contract with a Henrietta company covering a good part of the season. Therefore, the price will not be much more here than last year. This home enterprise has always kept the retail price of coal down and has saved the people of Ada a large sum since Mr. Frick came.

Hon. Wm. H. Murray has entered the campaign with all the zeal of a good democrat. Following is a list of his early dates. Sahakwa, Saturday afternoon, Oct. 22, 2 o'clock; Francis, Saturday night, Oct. 22; Konawa, Monday night, Oct. 24; Mill Creek, Tuesday night, Oct. 25.

FOR SEVEN YEARS

I have been in the furniture business at Ada, and my policy has always been to treat people right in all matters, great or small.

My Business Has Grown

until I have had to occupy a second building in order to hold the big stock of furniture I now carry. A full line of everything needed about a house, from the cheapest to the most expensive, and everything sold guaranteed to be just as represented. J. F. Jackson is now with me and will be pleased to see his old customers and show them my big stock.

MAKES TRIP IN AEROPLANE AT ST. LOUIS—ENJOYS THE SPORT.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 11.—Theodore Roosevelt made a biplane flight today and said it was the finest experience he ever had. He traveled twice around the aviation field at Kinloch, sixteen miles west of St. Louis, in 3 minutes and 20 seconds. He waved his hand at the crowd of thousands on the field below, most of whom were too dumfounded to move.

When the machine alighted easily a few feet from the starting place a mighty shout of applause and relief went up.

Aviator Was the Nervous Man.

Arch Hoxey, a Wright aviator, with whom Col. Roosevelt made his flight, said that his passenger made a good fellow voyager for such a trip, except that instead of being afraid, he was having such a good time that Hoxey was afraid he would fall out or interfere with the engine, which was roaring at his side.

The Colonel waved his hands at the crowd below so vigorously that Hoxey called out to him: "Keep your hands on the rail, Colonel."

Col. Roosevelt, who had forgotten to hold himself in, waved his hands once more and then obeyed orders. Acceptance of Invitation a Surprise.

The Colonel's flight was a surprise to everybody. Although he had been invited to go, no one had the least idea that he would do so, and he did not decide to go until the moment before he stepped into the machine.

The trip to the aviation field to watch the flights there was on the afternoon's program for the colonel's day in St. Louis. He went to Kinloch in an automobile at the head of a procession of motor cars which was half a mile long.

The cars were filled by members of the republican state and city committee's business men. The ride was a fast and dusty one, and much of the way the cars were enveloped in such clouds of dust, that it was impossible to see more than a few feet ahead. Col. Roosevelt's face was covered with a thick coating of Missouri dirt when he arrived at the field.

Noisy Welcome When He Arrives.

Col. Roosevelt's car was driven directly on the aviation field, instead of to the parking place for automobiles. Around the rim of the field were hundreds of cars which tooted their horns in noisy chorus as the colonel appeared.

The spectators were massed in throngs on every hand, and a company of militiamen kept them back. Hoxey's machine, a great biplane, was standing directly in front of the grand stand. Col. Roosevelt stepped from his automobile with Gov. Hadley at his side and walked over to it. He inspected the broad planes and the huge engine, and shook hands with the aviator.

Hoxey Extends Invitation to Fly.

"I'd like to have you for a passenger," Hoxey said. The colonel looked at him without a word. Then he began to take off his coat. It was the first intimation that any one had that he would make the trip.

Gov. Hadley stepped up quickly with a serious look on his face and said:

"Are you really going up, Colonel?" "Of course, I am," the colonel said and without another word took his seat at Hoxey's direction, beside the engine.

Gov. Hadley said that it would do no good to protest and stepped back. He admitted afterward that he was nervous.

"This is my district and it extends up into the air. I feel a sense of responsibility while the Colonel is in my territory," he said.

Congressman Carter Will Speak.

Hon. C. D. Carter, congressman from the fourth district, will address the citizens of Pontotoc county on the issues of the day on the dates at the places named: Stonewall, Friday, Oct. 21, 8 p. m. Ada, Saturday, Oct. 22, 2 p. m. Roff, Saturday, Oct. 22, 8 p. m.

"I have no defense to make of the Payne law because it needs none," says Mr. Cannon. We move to amend by substituting "admits of" for needs.

INDIAN CASES AGAIN POSTPONED

Muskogee, Okla., Oct. 10.—When the Brown-Gritts case is called for argument in the supreme court of the United States Tuesday, Attorney General Wickersham for the government will move that the hearing be postponed for thirty days. The postponement is upon request of Senator Owen, of Muskogee, who is of counsel for the plaintiffs, and who found it inconvenient for him to be in Washington at this time.

The Brown-Gritts case is one of the most important Indian cases now pending in the courts. The vital point at issue is whether or not the government, after it has given an Indian an allotment under treaty stipulations, can place additional restrictions upon such allotment without the consent of the Indian. It involves the validity of the McCumber amendment which placed the lands of the full-blood Indians of the Five Civilized Tribes under restrictions prohibiting the sale of the land for a period of twenty-five years from the date of the patent. The McCumber amendment was passed after the Indians had selected their allotments.

Another very important feature of this case is that its decision will have a very important bearing upon the thirty thousand land title suits that have been instituted in eastern Oklahoma by the government. If the Brown-Gritts case is decided favorably for the plaintiffs, it will practically wipe out all of the land title cases. If the decision is against them then the cases will have to be tried on their merits.

SALE OF THE DAN HAYS ADDITION

We desire to call special attention to the big ad of the Dan Hays addition lot sale in this issue. The sale will take place Friday and Saturday, October 21-2. All Ada people know how very desirable this property is. In fact, it is about all that remains close in. Richard Flood, who now owns that property, is on the ground pushing matters night and day. He is a man who has made a success of this kind of work and knowing the possibilities of Ada, he is most enthusiastic over these lots. He is a man who likewise knows the value of a newspaper in getting his property before the people. It will pay you to keep an eye on him and his progressive methods of handling real estate. Other ads will follow between now and the sale. Watch for them.

MINNESOTA JUDGE TO PASS ON CLAUSE

Guthrie, Okla., Oct. 11.—United States Circuit Judge Walter A. Sanborn of St. Paul has been requested by United States Judge Cotteral of Oklahoma to preside in Guthrie during the hearings on the suit attacking the constitutionality of the recently adopted grandfather clause. It is probable that under the law three judges will be required to preside.

Judge Cotteral, in passing upon a case before involving the principle of the grandfather clause, expressed his opinion of the law, declaring that those who would disfranchise the negro did not have the merits of goods citizens. Hence his request that another judge preside.

INDIANS APPEAL FOR WHITE MAN'S CHANGE

Muskogee, Ok., Oct. 11.—By passing resolutions, the substance of which declared in favor of the government "giving the Indian a white man's chance," the International Indian congress adjourned this afternoon. The resolutions will be carried by a committee to Washington this winter and congress asked to take action.

A babel of tongues and a riot of color added picturesqueness to the session today when 500 Indians met in pow-wow. The tribes represented were the Peorias, Delawares, Choctaws, Creeks, Cherokees, Blackfeet, Pueblos, Nobles, Arapahoes, Chey-Quawpaws, Sioux, Crows and others. This evening the Indians were taken Kaws, Kiawas, Comanches, Miamis, in a delegation to the Eastern Oklahoma State Fair.

Speeches were made by Rev. Sherman Colledge, Arapaho and Cheesle McIntosh, a Creek, and interpreted to the various tribes.

Rev. Mr. Colledge, who is a highly educated Arapaho, spoke in part: "Give the Indian the white man's chance is all we ask and is all we need and the rest of the Indian race can become what the Five Civilized Tribes are, and can accomplish what the Five Tribes have accomplished. The Indian nature is pathetic and they have been tried as scholars and soldiers and have not been found wanting."

A resolution committee met this afternoon and spent hours drafting a suitable resolution. Each section has to be interpreted to each of the representatives of the twenty tribes. This evening the Indians were taken Kaws, Kiawas, Comanches, Miamis, in a delegation to the Eastern Oklahoma State Fair.

For once the state seems to have won a most important victory in its efforts to enforce the prohibitory law. Judge Munden enjoined all transportation companies from bringing in liquors consigned to holders of federal licenses, the possession of such license being prima facie evidence of his intention to violate the prohibitory law. A de-murrer was filed a few days ago but he refused to dissolve the injunction until it comes up on final hearing.
Things will be rather dry around Oklahoma City and other towns if that decision stands.

Of course it is the bit dog that howls, and the racket being made by republican papers and politicians over the state about the political articles written by W. P. Kerr of the Oklahoman is a fine tribute to the accuracy and speed of the missiles cast by that valiant knight of the quill. It must be music to Kerr's ears. He started out with the idea of carrying the war into the enemy's country and putting him on the defensive instead of passively waiting for a republican attack to read. We congratulate our fellow worker on his glowing success in stirring the journal up.

The Tulsa World editor reads a letter to his local members of the C. O. declaring the city are drinking and becoming lazy. You see many of our papers of being paid have been using trade names. Ada, the practical and honest city, has refused to do this. The World says it is becoming very tired of looking over the pages where editorial ought to be and finding nothing but this stuff. It really is a little im-portunate at times to find about half the papers of the state filled with the same editorials.

If the Sons of Washington had drafted a fair local option law for submission at the November election as a substitute for prohibition, there might have been enough people on the east side of the state, who have never seen the open saloon in operation, to have adopted the same. But intentionally or carelessly the proposed amendment is so worded as to practically remove ever the safeguards that the old territorial law of Oklahoma provided. The measure is vicious and will go down to deserved defeat.—McAlester News-Capital.

The people of Oklahoma will get another object lesson this winter. As a result of the Hook injunction the railroads have advanced the freight rates on coal some twenty-five or thirty-five cents per ton, and this will, of course, have to be paid by the consumer. It should be remembered that Joe McNeal, the republican nominee for governor was a star witness for the railroads in that suit, and that on several occasions he signed appeal bonds for the roads when they carried cases against the commission into court.

The News is a firm believer in sticking to home institutions. We are mutually dependent upon each other and whether it is a job of printing, a suit of clothes or a ton of coal we believe in sticking to the home man and not ordering through some agent or catalogue. Even if one saves a few cents on some order, the money is gone from here forever, whereas if spent at home we stand a good chance of getting back part or all of it.

The republican papers are still howling about democratic extravagance, but it is a noteworthy fact that not one of them has taken up the offer of the New State Tribune to find a republican state whose government costs less per capita than that of Oklahoma. Badly as most republican papers need a little ready cash, this is rather significant.

Notice Democrats.

There will be a meeting of the Democratic Central Committee of Pontotoc county at Ada Tuesday, Oct.
18th, at 1 p. m. All county and township candidates are urged to be present. Hon. Smith C. Matson, representing the state central committee will be with us and give us some inside information concerning the campaign.

GREER GIVES DEFINITIVE ANSWER TO HASKELL

DARES THE GOVERNOR TO DO HIS WORST—IS EAGER FOR BATTLE.

Frank Greer, editor of the Guthrie State Capital, evidently has his back up and is just a trifle reffled at Gov.
Haskell. He likewise has no very high opinion of Pontotoc county and its citizenship as will be seen from the following squib in yesterday's Capital. Says the State Mr. Greer: Governor Haskell has been heard from. There was such silence after his threat to the editor of the State Capital that he would fix him to the limit if he didn't apologize and quit telling the truth about him, that we thought maybe he had moved off the earth—or taken to the brush.

Now he comes to life again, through his private attorney—no doubt paid by the state—O. T. Smith.

The governor has had a week to ruminate over the Greer answer and out of his thick tank he has evolved an order to O. T.—no doubt paid by the state—to go to Ada and there lay the wires for the indictment of Greer for criminally libeling his highness the little.

He looked the state over and concluded Pontotoc county was a county where a real, strong-arm, dyed-in-the-knit grand jury could be convened which would oblige him and his lawyer to go to the limit and lay the truth about his little big-ness.

O. T.—no doubt paid by the state—has been to Ada and approved the situation—and other things. And to the following newspaper article published in the C. N.

"Ada is to be the scene of about the breeziest trial for criminal libel the state has seen in a long time.
Frank Greer, the editor of the Guthrie State Capital, will be the defendant and will be given an opportunity to make good some of his utterances in recent issues of his paper about Governor Haskell. Orville T. Smith, special counsel to the governor, is here today looking into the matter and when the case comes to trial county Attorney Wambish will have charge of the prosecution.

"Since the constitutional convention held its opening session even to this good hour, the Capital, the most disreputable sheet published west of the Mississippi river, and which has done more with its slanderous talk to discredit Oklahoma abroad than any other influence, has never let a day pass without printing a lot of charges against Haskell and since statehood, the whole administration as well. Of course these charges have always fallen to the ground of their own weight, for there was no foundation for them to rest upon. Haskell has been very forbearing towards the sore and vitriolic Greer who was cut off from his state printing contracts, being forced to come in and bid against other printers, but the limit has been reached.

"In a talk with the News editor, Mr. Smith stated that this suit would not be made a political issue and that the charges would not be filed until after the November election. He also said he wanted it distinctly understood that it was in no wise an attack on the press of the state, but was really to elevate the press by eliminating its most disreputable representative."

The newspaper with the audacity to tell the truth about Haskell is the "most disreputable representative" of the press! Awful "aint" it?

But why "after election?" If a crime has been committed on the sacred person of his majesty, why wait till after election? The governor has a fashion of putting off the punishment of offenses indefinitely—vide the Columbia bank grand jury —and he may be in line with himself by putting this off; but really, governor, we don't want any postponement. Our name is not "Technically." We don't care anything about the statute of limitations. If you think the editor of the State Capital has criminally libeled you, turn on your dogs at once. Don't be afraid it might be taken as political if you let your picked democratic grand jury loose in a hot-bed democratic county. You have not made a turn since you have been governor which a grand jury of O. T. in charge? Well, that would be going some.

But we think the truth will make

GRAND LEADER CLOSED AGAIN TEMPORARILY

The insurance adjusters having in hand the settlement of losses incurred in the recent fire at the Grand Leader store reached an agreement with Messrs Katz & Rosenfeld the proprietors Saturday as to the value of goods now in the store but failed to reach an agreement as to the allowances to be made and the amount due on account of the fire. The store was opened for business Saturday night and until last night did a rushing business.

How ever when J F McKel their attorney returned from Dallas last night he advised that the store be closed until everything was settled thereby taking no chance or litigation later. Mr McKel states that he thinks everything will be settled within a week and the store again open for business.

The convention was held at the Hotel Ardmore. The local unions reported at the meeting. The convention was held at the Hotel Ardmore.

The President Mrs. C. P. H. of Oklahoma City delivered an address at the convention. She was given a cordial reception by the local unions. The convention was held at the Hotel Ardmore.

The Organized Women's Christian Temperance Union membership during the past year.

Hon. George Bough of Guthrie, candidate for governor on the prohibition ticket is attending the convention. In a five minutes talk to-day he did not refer to the proposed local option amendment to the constitution nor to his candidacy for governor. His talk was devoted to his experience in promoting the organization. Every other speaker who occupied the floor referred to the proposed amendment and predicted that the state would go overwhelmingly dry in November.

The program tonight consisted of welcome addresses by people of Ardmore.

AWFUL PAINS FULLY DESCRIBED

A Lady of Pizarro Tells Story of
Awful Suffering That Cardui
Finally Relieved.

Pizarro, Va.—"I suffered for several years," writes Mrs. Dorna A. Smith, "with that awful backache and the bearing down sensations, so fully described in your book.

"I tried doctors and other medicines and found little relief, until I was induced to try Wine of Cardui, when I found instant relief, and today can heartily recommend Cardui to all suffering women and think there is no other as good."

In some instances, Cardui gives instant relief; in others, it may take a little time. But in all cases of female trouble Cardui can be depended on to be of benefit, as it is a specific remedy for women and acts in a curative way on the womanly organs.

As a general tonic for women, to build up your strength, improve your appetite, bring back rosy cheeks and make you look and feel young and happy, nothing you can find will do so much for you as Cardui.

Your druggist has it.

RECORD OF CONGRESSMAN CHARLES D. CARTER

The Ada News has always been a consistent friend of Charley Carter, congressman from this district, and it has afforded us no little satisfaction to observe the good record he has been making. That others likewise appreciate his excellent work is shown from the following editorial which appeared in the Durant Daily Democrat under date of October 7:

Some of the republican papers in congressional district have been asking what our democratic congressman has done during his one and a half terms of service. This is a fair question and we hereinbelow set forth a few of the things accomplished for the Fourth district during Charley Carter's incumbency, and from their number and importance it would seem that Charley Carter has been one of the busiest of the bunch at Washington, to-wit:

"Resolution authorizing the Gore investigation; authorization of immediate appeal of Indian land suits to the supreme court of the United States; platting and sale of town lots on the segregated mineral land, a proposition which gave to many the privilege of getting title to a home or business house which they had already built; giving authority to secretary of the interior to accept payment on town lots which had already been sold to which title was not available on account of the Act of April 26, 1906; the sale of the public domain for school and other public purposes; replating and sale of town lots at Hartshorne, Oklahoma, limitation of the contest period, preventing the bringing of contests on Indian filings after sixty days removal of restrictions on nine million acres of Indian lands; payment of $200,000 Choctaw and Chickasaw warrants which had hung fire for four years, and exempting Indian lands from which restrictions were removed from obligations for debts contracted prior thereto.

Appropriations for internal improvements have come to this district during Mr. Carter's term amounting to more than $1,000,000, consisting of the furnishing of land records to the counties which composed old Indian Territory; maintenance of public schools, survey and improvements of rivers, building of court houses and post offices, and donations of federal jails to counties."

These and many other important items of good legislation have been accomplished for this district since Charley Carter was sent to congress, in all of which he took an active and leading part, and was the proponent and chief defender of many of them.

As to the position he has taken on national issues suffice it to say that an investigation of the congressional record will show that Mr. Carter's vote on every measure has been in favor of the people as against the special interest, a record exactly the reverse of the three stand-pat republican congressmen from this district.

Moreover, Charley Carter is a good loyal citizen of the Fourth district. It is true he is not so wealthy as the republican candidate, but stick a pin here, he has faith in his district and stands loyally by his home folks; for his little mite—ever cent that he has ever accumulated—has been invested in property in the Fourth Congressional district.

the fact that he has been of sufficient importance to draw the fire of the wily and arrogant Joe Cannon, speaker of the house, a distinction not attained by many new members, and which establishes him unequivocally on the side of the people as opposed to the special interests of organized greed represented by Uncle Joe.

Now, let us see what the republican candidate has ever done for the people of this district that he has the right to expect their suffrage. He was federal clerk for more than ten years at a salary ranging from $10,000 to $60,000 per annum, during which time he drew more than $200,000 from the same "strong box" from which congressman Carter's salary comes, and the only thing the people of this district ever derived therefrom is the knowledge of his enormous investments in Maryland and Oklahoma City, both places out of the district.

The republican candidate spent a greater part of last winter and spring in Washington. When he came home republican papers heralded his return with the statement that he had accomplished more during his stay than any other man had done in years.

Now, we call on you, republican editors, to name one single thing he accomplished in Washington last winter. Can you make good?

Who Will Control Next Congress?

The New York Herald has made a close study of the present situation of the country and concludes that the democrats are sure of electing 141 members of the next house, the republicans 132 and 113 districts doubtful. By states these are as follows:

Alabama, 1; California, 2; Colorado, the state at large and two districts; Connecticut, 1; Delaware, 1; Georgia, 1; Illinois, 10; Indiana, 10; Iowa, 6; Kansas, 2; Kentucky, 5; Maryland, 6; Michigan, 3; Minnesota, 1; Missouri, 1; Nebraska, 2; Nevada, 1; New Hampshire, 1; New Jersey, 3; New York, 13; North Carolina, 5; Ohio, 9; Oklahoma, 1; Pennsylvania, 14; Rhode Island, 2; Tennessee, 1; Virginia, 1; West Virginia, 4; Wisconsin, 3.

It is worthy of note that many states that have for years been solidly republican have a number of districts placed in the doubtful column.

ROOSEVELT CAN'T VISIT OKLAHOMA NOW

Guthrie, Ok., Oct. 11.—Col. Roosevelt will not be able to visit Oklahoma during his present Western trip, is the information conveyed by letters from the ex-President to James A. Harris, chairman of the state republican committee, and to Congressman Bird McGuire. The Colonel wrote that his available dates were filled and that the New York committee believed that he should give the remainder of his time to the campaign in that state.

Col. Roosevelt made it plain in his letter to Chairman Harris, however, that he would like very much to visit Oklahoma as the chairman and requested, and that he thought it possible he could come later. It is believed now that he can be secured for a number of speeches during that the country will be nearer outpaign.

You appreciate how uncomfortable the kitchen is these warm days? It will be worse as you advance further in the summer. Why not use electricity and be cool? You can cook, bake, operate your sewing machine, wash and iron. In fact, there is nothing which cannot be accomplished with electricity that is accomplished by either gas or an ordinary range. It is odorless, no heat, no smoke simply press the button and we do the rest.

A question of interest to Oklahoma people is what coal is going to cost this winter. We have noticed several comments along this line and that coal will likely be higher this winter. To get at the facts of the case the News man interviewed B. H. Frick, manager of the Ada Ice and Fuel Co. this morning. Mr. Frick stated that there is no truth in the statement sent out by the coal producers that any advance will be by the retail dealers. Of course the situation is in the hands of the big companies and they have raised the price from fifty cents to $2.00 per ton. Besides this the freight rates will be from twenty-five to thirty-five cents higher than last year on account of the federal injunction holding up the commission's rate. Furthermore, the coal companies are sore because they did not get the support they expected from the state during the strike and now feel inclined to retaliate by making up for the losses incurred during the strike by exacting a higher price for their product.

However, Ada will be more fortunate than most towns. Mr. Frick already had a contract with a Henrietta company covering a good part of the season. Therefore, the price will not be much more here than last year. This home enterprise has always kept the retail price of coal down and has saved the people of Ada a large sum since Mr. Frick came.

Wm. H. Murray's Speaking Dates.
Hon. Wm. H. Murray has entered the campaign with all the zeal of a good democrat. Following is a list of his early dates. Sahakwa, Saturday afternoon, Oct. 22, 2 o'clock; Francis, Saturday night, Oct. 22; Konawa, Monday night, Oct. 24; Mill Creek, Tuesday night, Oct. 25.
